

FROM THE
NEW CZAR.First Proclamation Issued by Heralds in St. Petersburg To-Day.

IT HAS PROMISES OF PEACE.

Festival of Accession Takes Precedence Over Mourning at the Capital.

ALEXANDER'S BODY EMBALMED.

Grand Duke George Recognized as Present Heir Apparent to the Throne.(By Associated Press.) ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—The Official Messenger this morning publishes the first proclamation of Emperor Nicholas II. of Russia, in which, after formally communicating to the nation the news of the death of his father, Alexander III., says:"May the knowledge console us that our grief is the grief of our entire beloved nation, and may the nation not forget that the strength and firmness of Holy Russia lies in its unity and unbounded devotion to us.""In this sad and solemn hour in which we ascend our ancestral throne of the Russian Empire and Caesardom of Poland and the Grand Duchy of Finland, indissolubly linked with it, we however, remember the legacy left to us by our lamented father, and imbued with it, in the presence of the Most High, take a sacred vow to make our sole aim the peaceful development of the power and glory of our beloved Russia and the happiness of all our faithful subjects."The manifesto concludes with commending that the oath of allegiance be taken to him, Emperor Nicholas II., and to his heir apparent, Grand Duke George Alexandrovich, his brother, who is to be entitled Czar with until God may bless with a son the union which His Majesty is about to enter into with Princess Alexandra of Hesse-Darmstadt."At 9 o'clock this morning the Imperial palace, in brilliant uniforms, attended by a troop of trumpeters, announced the death of Alexander III., and the accession to the throne of Russia of Nicholas II. The two heralds, with their escorts, traversed all the principal streets of the city, and after the trumpeters had sounded three ringing blasts upon their trumpets, they made public the proclamation of Emperor Nicholas II.Throughout St. Petersburg to-day the accession of the new czar is being celebrated as a festival, the principal streets of the city, and after the trumpeters
proclamation of Emperor Nicholas II.At 10 o'clock yesterday evening the first requiem mass for the repose of the soul of Alexander III., was celebrated in St. Petersburg, and all the Ministers and members of the Council of the Empire were present. When the service was over, all those in attendance took the oath of allegiance to Czar Nicholas II. and to his heir presumptive, the Grand Duke, Grand Duke George, brother of the Czar.This morning the Senate met in plenary session and all its members took the oath of allegiance to the new czar, and the troops forming the garrison of St.
Petersburg were paraded in full uniform with their colors and were sworn with sacramental solemnity. Later, the same ceremony was observed in the case of the civil servants of the Empire.Czar's Body Embalmed.
LEVADIA, Nov. 2.—The body of Czar Alexander III., having been embalmed and attired in the uniform of the Preobrajensky Regiment of the Guard, was this morning conveyed to the small, private chapel of the Palace. The bier was surrounded with lighted candles and was watched by relays of priests and officers of the army.At the religious services which were afterwards held in the chapel all the members of the Imperial family and the Imperial Household were present. The officiating priest, after reading the required prayers, exhorted the assembled body, bearing chanting an impressive liturgy.Mourning in France.
PARIS, Nov. 2.—There is universal mourning to-day throughout France at the death of the Czar, although the French people are quiet. There is no doubting the fact that the Republic really believes that it has lost one of its best friends in the death of Alexander III. Mourning emblems are to be seen on all sides, the favorite form of mourning display being the draping of Russian and French flags combined.The death of the Czar, however, has caused no excitement in France, andhas not been marked by any trouble on the Bourse.All the theatres will be closed tonight, and they will also be closed on the day of the funeral.The Municipal Council of Paris met this morning and drew up an address of condolence and arranged to send a deputation of its members to St. Petersburg, who will take to the Municipal Council of St. Petersburg some magnificent floral wreaths, to be placed upon the casket containing the remains of the late Emperor of Russia.The Council General of the Department of the Seine took similar action and the students of Paris are holding a meeting this morning in order to make the arrangements necessary for sending a delegation to St. Petersburg and to Moscow to represent the students of France at the funeral and deposit upon the casket the wreaths which will be sent from France.Sympathy in England.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The mourning expressions of sympathy and respect which have been called forth by the death of Czar Alexander III. are universal. The officials of the Russian Empire have been overwhelmed with messages of condolence. Flags are halfmasted everywhere in London, and in the large cities of the United Kingdom, and special religious services are being arranged at Buckingham Palace, at Marlborough House and at the other residences of the royal family.In addition the shades are drawn down at all the palaces and other habitations of royalty, and orders have been issued that the military bands are not to play at any function until after the funeral.
Queen Victoria is profoundly affected at the death of Czar Alexander, and has issued the necessary instructions for the Court to go into mourning for the usual period.The press is unanimous in reflecting the feeling of sympathy expressed on all sides among the Queen's subjects for the Russian nation in its grief.Among the afternoon newspapers, however, the Globe has made itself somewhat conspicuous by striking a discordant note, saying, among other things, that:"It does seem a little absurd to watch the attitude assumed by France. For days past there has been a kind of hysterical insistence that, when the event occurred, France must be the power to occupy the position of chief mourner.
Apart from the implied alliance between Russia and France, it does seem passing strange that France alone should be interested in the sad event at Livadia.
Our own royal family, and through them the nation at large, is far more deeply interested, and the same may be said of Germany and Denmark, and every country where the monarchical system exists."Scrow in Germany.
BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Emperor William has decided to send Prince Henry of Prussia to represent him at the funeral of the Czar.The Imperial standard floating over the New Palace has been half-masted as a sign of Emperor William's sorrow at the death of the Czar, and in all parts of Berlin, over public and private buildings, the German flag is displayed at half-mast.By the Emperor's command the theatres have been closed and the Court will go into mourning for four weeks.
Emperor William, who came especially from Stettin for the purpose, paid an early call at the Russian Embassy to-day, and expressed his condolence with the Imperial family of Russia.Denmark Greatly Moved.
COPENHAGEN, Nov. 2.—The death of the Czar has profoundly moved the people of Denmark. Immediately upon the receipt of the news of His Majesty's death, orders were issued for the half-masting of all the principal streets of the city, and after the trumpeters
proclamation of Emperor Nicholas II.The King of Denmark and the Crown Prince, Frederick, will go to Russia in order to attend the funeral of the Czar.The Vatican and the New Czar.
ROME, Nov. 2.—The Vatican is said to hope that the new Czar will continue the traditions of friendship towards the Holy See. The last days of Alexander III.The Pope will be represented at the funeral of the Czar either by Archbishop Mohlberg, or by the Papal Nuncio at Vienna.The Vatican believes that the death of the Czar will in no way affect the Franco-Russian alliance, and it is said that so long as Cardinal Rampolla, who is an ardent friend of Russia, remains Papal Secretary of State the adhesion of the Vatican to that alliance will remain an article of pontifical faith.NEW CZAR TO PRESIDENT.
Mr. Cleveland Receives a Message from Nicholas II.
(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Secretary of State Gresham to-day received a despatch from the Russian Foreign Office, announcing the succession of the new Emperor.President Cleveland, later, received a message direct from the new Emperor, announcing the death of his father. Suitable responses are being prepared.A Tribute to the Dead Czar.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 2.—The native papers announce that the Chinese troops have retaken Kiulien-Cheng after heavy fighting. The Japanese are said to have been driven out of that place with the loss of 3,000 men.Von Caprivi Goes to Switzerland.
(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A despatch to The Times from Bern says that ex-Chancellor von Caprivi started for Switzerland Wednesday evening. His furniture at the Chancellery has been sent to Skiern, near Kreuzen, where he intends to live after his return. Chancellor von Clenow has appointed Capt. Count Clenow, von Schomborn-Wiesentheid, his aide-de-camp.Who Has Lost a Red Setter?
